Introduction

Intramural sports provide an opportunity for Penn State Harrisburg students, faculty and staff to participate in various recreational activities to enhance the college experience. Participants create their own teams and compete against other teams comprised of their peers. Good sportsmanship is stressed and required!

Participation is at the individual's risk. A participant is expected to consider his/her personal health and physical condition prior to intramural sport participation. Individuals are expected to have their own health insurance coverage. Intramural games run Sunday-Thursday from 9:00-11:00 p.m. PSU IDs must be presented before all games.

GET INVOLVED!

All Penn State Harrisburg intramural information and sign-ups can be found on imleagues.com. Every participant must create an account to be added to a team roster. On the website, you can create teams, sign up as a free agent, find registration dates/times, see game schedules, read rules, view pictures, get announcements and more.

Officials
All officials are provided by the Intramural Sports office. Officials must attend sport-specific training prior to officiating. Being an official is a great way to combine work and recreation. For more information on joining our officiating staff, log onto imleagues.com and click the IM Officials tab. Officials should have a working knowledge of basic rules prior to applying.
